

American Indian Heritage Month 2020

Common Value, Common Ground

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer and lender.

Artist: Traci Rabbit

Preserving, protecting, and celebrating our people, traditions, and culture.

This poster represents everything it means to be indigenous. The passing of our traditions and culture to future generations.

Teaching them not only our traditional arts, but the art of our language and growing our own food.

The tree is symbolic of how our roots run deep and we will not be shaken.

WE ARE HERE and WE WILL CONTINUE TO CELEBRATE WHO WE ARE!!!!